2022-23 School Year Resources

School Uniforms

We are aware of the various issues families are experiencing with uniform ordering (out of stock items, receipts, etc.,) due to supply chain issues. We have shared the feedback with the vendor(s).

Please regularly check the online storefront(s) for restocked inventory. We are hopeful students will have what they need to start the school year, but we will certainly work with families who cannot get items on time.
