Home & School Snack

On Friday, February 17th Home & School will be providing a school snack. It will be a trail mix containing: goldfish, pretzels, chocolate chips and dried cranberries. Please send a snack with your child if they have allergies to this.

Holy Cross Men's Open

Did your child grade (4-8) participate in sports this year at St Ignatius?

If so, you are required to work 1 shift (per family) at the Holy Cross Men's Tournament to be eligible for to receive your $100.00 uniform deposit refund. This is also a great way to for high school families to earn family service hours. The St Ignatius Athletic Association supports and organizes all St Ignatius sports programs, and the Men's Tournament is the biggest fundraiser we hold. Your support is greatly appreciated.

March Madness Basketball Camp

March Madness Basketball Camp is back for 2023! St Ignatius Athletic Association will again host 2 days of basketball camps for our upcoming athletes! Any Preschool-4th grade student interested in the March Madness Basketball Camp can sign up using the below link. Participants can sign up for one or both days.

Middle school (6th – 8th grade) volunteers are also needed for this event. <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0C49ABA92BA1FAC07-march1>

Afterschool Pickup

As a reminder the two lanes for pick up are designed for parents to quickly pick up their children. If you are not prepared to move through quickly or if your child is delayed in exiting, please move out of the pickup lane and find a place to park.

Please note that the parking stalls between the traffic circle and the building should not be used at the end of the day pickup. Thank you!
